Celebrating 150 Years of Ministry at Trinity!

Please welcome our guest pastor.....

Rev. Charlie Brandt

I am currently a retired pastor, after having the privilege of serving 3 wonderful congregations for 44 years. I served Trinity, Toledo for 14 years, from 1995 to 2008. After leaving Trinity, I served Bethlehem, in Sun Prairie, Wisconsin for my final 15 years. I am currently also serving as Vice President of the Western Region of the South Wisconsin and Police, Fire and EMS Chaplain in Sun Prairie.

Currently, Carol and I are serving (for free) at Cross Lutheran, the mission congregation Bethlehem started, and Pastor Joel Brandt is the pastor. In our retirement, I preach every other Sunday and teach Bible classes and Carol plays organ and helps with women's events. I have been dubbed the men's social director for Cross. Carol and I have 3 adult children, all in church work and 8 grandchildren. I still enjoy hunting, fishing, golf and recently pickleball (with Carol). I still do men's wilderness fishing trips as I did while at Trinity, but now the men have turned into pansies, giving up canoes for bass boats and pontoons.

Growing up, I always wanted to be a pastor, and I still love serving God's people treasuring my years at Trinity.
