Thank you to all who helped make the Lenten soup suppers a complete success! The suppers could not take place without the generosity of our many wonderful cooks within our congregation, along with our student helpers of all ages and your presence. A special thanks also to Kathy Hickman for organizing & coordinating this annual event. God bless you all!

THANKS BE TO GOD

and to all those who gave so generously to completely cover the cost of our new organ! It is our hope that the new organ will be installed in June. Praise God! And thank you!!
